

Contact details of universities

If you have questions regarding the initiatives The Guild's member universities are doing regarding supporting researchers, students, academics, and university staff affected by the war in Ukraine, please find below the contact details of each university.

The list will be updated.

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| Austria | University of Vienna: general questions: rektorat@univie.ac.at and study related questions: slw.leitung@univie.ac.at |
| Belgium | Ghent University: actueel@ugent.be UClouvain: christel.vacelet@uclouvain.be |
| Estonia | University of Tartu: ukraina@ut.ee |
| France | Université Paris Cité: international.drive@u-paris.fr and thomas.touzet@u-paris.fr |
| Germany | University of Göttingen: ukraine@uni-goettingen.de University of Tübingen: researchers: international.research@uni-tuebingen.de and students: study@uni-tuebingen.de |
| Italy | University of Bologna: emergenza.ucraina@unibo.it |
| The Netherlands | Radboud University: info@ru.nl The University of Groningen: isr@rug.nl |
| Norway | University of Oslo: k.f.stene@admin.uio.no |
| Poland | Jagiellonian University: welcome@uj.edu.pl |
| Romania | Babeş-Bolyai University: students: corina.todea@ubbcluj.ro and teachers: carmen.tagsorean@ubbcluj.ro |
| Slovenia | University of Ljubljana: pomoc.ukrajina@uni-lj.si |
| Spain | Pompeu Fabra University: info-ucraina@upf.edu |
| Sweden | Uppsala University: kaarina.ringstad@uu.se |
| Switzerland | University of Bern: info.int@unibe.ch |
| The UK | University of Glasgow: rachel.sandison@glasgow.ac.uk |